Missing Hungarian trekker rescued in 30-hour operation in J&K's Kishtwar

JAMMU, AUG 27 /--/ A 38-year-old Hungarian trekker was rescued in a joint search operation by the Army and the Indian Air Force (IAF) from the snow-bound upper ranges of Machhail in Kishtwar district of Jammu and Kashmir, a defence spokesman said on Saturday.

The solo traveller, Akkoes Vermes from Budapest, had lost his way in Umasila Pass in Himalayan ranges while on a mountaineering expedition and was left exposed to inclement weather for five days, Jammu-based Army PRO Lt Col Devender Anand said. Upholding the finest traditions of the Army of selfless service, he said, a team of the Rashtriya Rifles deployed in Dool and the IAF Udhampur, in coordination with the district administration, carried out 30-hour-long search and rescue operation in the upper reaches of Machhail, Paddar, which is snowbound and remote. The team of the Indian Army recovered Vermes from the treacherous glaciated heights of Umasila in sumcham valley, the officer said. Lt Col Anand said the traveller was located by a joint effort of ground and aerial surveillance teams who conducted the search operation.

The foreigner was examined medically by a doctor of the Army and the district hospital at Kishtwar, which provided immediate medical assistance to him, he said. Vermes thanked the Army for his timely rescue. "I was in a very difficult situation...I am very thankful to the Indian army for finding and taking me to safety, the tourist said in a message shared by the Army. The spokesman said once the traveller was stable, a video call to the Hungarian embassy in Delhi was made by the Deputy Commissioner of Kishtwar to inform it about his well-being. He said the efforts of the Army and the Air Force were highly appreciated by the district administration and the Hungarian embassy. (PTI)

Water level in Ganga crosses danger mark in Varanasi

VARANASI, AUG 27 /--/ Water level in the Ganga crossed the danger mark in Varanasi on Saturday, inundating many agricultural and residential areas on the banks of the holy river and its tributaries.

The district administration, in a statement, said that 18 municipal wards and more than 80 villages have been affected by the floods in Ganga and its tributary Varuna in the district and 228.69 hectares of crops have been damaged in the district. According to the Central Water Commission, the water level of the Ganga crossed the danger mark of 71.26 meters and reached 71.50 meters by 10 am on Saturday. Sud-divisional magistrate (Sadar) Hansika Dixit said that 68 villages of Varanasi Sadar have been affected by the floods and as many as 10,104 flood victims have been shifted to 18 relief camps. The Varanasi district has three tehsils - Sadar, Pindra and Rajatalab. All necessary arrangements have been made to provide food and other necessities, the SDM said, adding that the teams of the district administration are continuously patrolling the affected areas to assist the trapped people. The SDM said that along with relief material and medical facilities, "dignity kits" consisting of sanitary kits as well as soap etc. are being distributed to the women.

Nandalal, a resident of Nagwa, told PTI that flood water has entered his house and he has shifted his family members and valuables to the houses of his relatives in the safer area, while he has taken shelter in a nearby house located at a height. There is also an increased risk of diseases because of flood waters, he feared. Rajan, a resident of Parshupur of Rajatalab tehsil, told PTI that the flood water has entered the agriculture fields in his village.

"About 15 bighas of paddy crop of Parshupur village have been submerged in water. If water remains in the fields for a few days, then the crop will be spoiled," he feared. According to SDM Rajatalab Girish Chandra Dwivedi, the situation is presently under control in Rajatalab tehsil. "Some crops have been submerged in water. If the water level of Ganga starts receding in a few days, the water will drain out of the field and the crop will not be harmed," he said. Six relief camps have been set up in Rajatalab tehsil area but no one is living there now, he said. Prime Minister Narendra Modi, who is the MP from Varanasi, had called District Magistrate Kaushal Raj Sharma and Commissioner Deepak Agarwal on Thursday and enquired about the situation in his constituency.

He had also asked the officials to provide all possible help to the people living in the relief camps and directed them to contact the PMO directly if needed, a statement issued by the district administration stated on Friday. State minister for Jal Shakti and incharge of Varanasi Division, Swatantra Dev Singh reached here on Friday and visited the relief camps in Saraiya and Nakhli Ghat. He also met the flood-affected people living in their homes after travelling from Nakhli Ghat in an NDRF motor boat. (PTI)

'Anti-social elements' attacked car in which my son, daughters were travelling, alleges AAP MLA

NEW DELHI, AUG 27 /--/ Aam Aadmi Party MLA from Mustafabad Haji Yunus on Saturday alleged that some "anti-social elements" who were in a "drunken state" attacked his car in which his son and daughters were travelling.

A case has been registered in this connection, the Delhi Police said. The incident took place in northeast Delhi's Shastri Park area following which Yunus took to Twitter to narrate the incident. "My car was attacked by some anti-social elements, in which my son and daughters were sitting. Five youths in a drunken state were in a white Scorpio car, they stopped my car and misbehaved with the family members! @CPDelhi please take cognizance of this @LTGovDelhi," he tweeted in Hindi. A senior police officer said an incident was reported in which some people, who were in a white Scorpio car, had an argument with a person named Mohammad Unesh near Shastri Park chowk. No scuffle or manhandling occurred between both the parties. At the time of the incident, MLA Haji Yunus was not present in the car, police said. Yunus also posted a video in his tweet. In the purported video, the Scorpio car is seen parked in front of the victim's car. (PTI)
